

HAXEMER BARRED BY FRENCH AT FAIR

Campus Outside of Pavilion
When German - Americans Wear Kaiser's Colors.

FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 7.—Increased complications in Europe cast long shadows over the Exposition ground in brief intervals yesterday. During the time several officers of the National German Alliance wearing miniature of the Fatherland walked into the French pavilion and, like the fellow in the ancient ditty, "walked right out."

It was the attempt of the German-Americans to visit the French pavilion, marked with the fact that they were decorated with the Kaiser's colors, that caused the brief but emphatic rumpus.
The party were Dr. C. J. Haxemer, of the National German-American Alliance; Walter H. Schultz, German-American representative; H. C. of Pittsburgh; Joseph Keller, of Monteagle; President John Herman, of the local Alliance, and their wives.
They were summoned and, after immediately told by them it could not be done, the French pavilion while the pavilion prevailed an air of quiet regarding the matter. The officials pointedly denied any knowledge of the occurrence.
